Request
request	I wish to make FOI request relating to the IPCC report from 2012 into the killing of Kate Mott in Southport Merseyside by her husband Brent Mott in January 2010.
Daamanaa	We published a summary of our investigation into these matters and this is
Response	available on the National Archives website here: [ARCHIVED CONTENT]
	IPCC publishes findings from investigation into Merseyside Police's response to woman's concerns (nationalarchives.gov.uk)
	We have decided that you are not entitled to the full report because it is exempt under sections 30 and 40 of the FOIA.
	In the case of information falling within the terms of section 30, we are refusing your request because the public interest in maintaining the exemption outweighs the public interest in disclosure.
	A summary of this investigation was published on our website at the time and remains on the National Archives website. This publication is in line with our Policy on the publication of final investigation reports and report summaries Independent Office for Police Conduct (IOPC). We consider this information to be a proportionate response to the public interest in transparency and accountability, taking into account the competing public interest in preserving the confidentiality of investigations and the persons to whom they relate, as well as the strong likelihood that a redacted version of the full report would not leave the public any better informed about this case.
	Whilst disclosure of the report would enable the public to see how the investigation had been carried out, we still consider that the legitimate interest is met by publishing the summary of the investigation. Publishing the investigation report as well would not make the police any more accountable and would do little to advance any broader interests in transparency. It would however be more intrusive towards individuals who could be identified. We also need to make sure we balance the rights of the individuals with the interests of the public. Disclosure under the FOIA must be the least intrusive means of achieving any legitimate interest. It is significant that there is no presumption under the GDPR that openness and transparency should take priority over personal privacy.

We consider that it would not be within the reasonable expectations of any identifiable individuals that the full report would be disclosed under the FOIA, particularly given the passage of time since this matter was concluded. Consequently we have decided that disclosure of this personal data would be inherently unfair.

Complaints regarding PACE Code C and sub-category B5: detention in custody

Back to top

Request

- 1. How many complaints were made regarding PACE Code C specifically concerning legal representation in police custody in the calendar years 2022 and 2023?
- 2. Which police forces were involved?
- 3. What were the outcomes of these?

I would be grateful if you could provide the number of allegations recorded by each police force under sub-category B5: 'detention in police custody' in each of the two years to 31 December 2023.

Response

The IOPC publishes annual complaints statistics and police complaints information bulletins which include information about the types of complaints against the police and how they deal with them. Please see the Police complaints statistics page of our website.

Annex A of our Guidance to police on capturing complaints data sets out that complaints about providing access to legal advice must be recorded under allegation category B: 'Police powers, policies and procedures', sub-category B5: 'detention in police custody'. As providing access to legal advice is not itself a category under which the police are required to record and provide complaints data, we do not hold information from which we could identify the number of allegations specifically concerning legal representation in police custody.

We could, however, provide the number of allegations recorded by force under sub-category B5: 'detention in police custody' in each of the two years to 31 December 2023 and this is represented below:

Number of complaints under PACE Code C, specifically concerning legal representation in police custody; in the calendar years 2022 and 2023 with force and outcomes information

We do not hold that to the level of specificity requested - this data includes all complaint allegations under the sub-category 'detention in police custody' headline category 'police powers, policies and procedures'

A force will handle an allegation either informally (known as 'outside of Schedule 3) or formally (under Schedule 3) $^{\rm s}$ A formally handled allegation will either be:

*Schedule 3 refers to Schedule 3 of the Police Reform Act (2002) as updated by the Policing and Crime Act (2017)

The complainant will be informed of the findings and on formally handled allegations will be offered a right of review

At the conclusion of this review period and after any actions have taken place, those actions will be recorded and the results of these is shown here

For more information, please see the guidance available here: https://www.policeconduct.gov.uk/publications/guidance-capturing-data-about-police-complaints

Data concerns allegations logged between 1 January 2022 and 31 December 2023. Where data refers to finalised matters, these are what was finalised up to 31 March 2024
